HOPE OF MY HEART
Hope of my heart, not yet lost
>Though born from a twisted soul
Mother blood, shamed to die

>In the darkening day
Fate's noose is drawn, blades
>Of demons clash the night
Good cast down for sorcery
>One of its own betrayed
Great dark claws reach
>For any who yet dare
The simplest crime of love
>Who dare to remember
Endless night envelops all
>But we will not forget
We refuse to forget your blood
>Hope of my heart, you live!

ANAKIN'S VOICE
Crimson marks the shadow queen
>Her face is still and white.
Heavy lies the peerless scent

>Of flowers in the night.
Haloed in white moonlight
>My angel lies still, her child
Has followed her path.
>On rainbowed roads of light.
But the light in my heart is gone now
>And the song of her voice
Is fading on my ear.
>My soul is barren like the sands
Of the home I left behind.

>The winds on the sands echo
In the caverns of my mind.
>I can never escape the hate,
That long ago burned my soul.
>I have no more reason to live
I have no more reason to fight.

>The night is coming
And only a slave boy lives.

ON THIS SIDE OF THE SCREEN
I wait in the shadows
>I watch the suns
As I wait
>Time marches on
I saw him as a child
>I saw him as a teen
I saw him as the student
>I saw him as the master
Calamity and tragedy
>Are but shadows to me
I watch his family
>From birth in miracle
To true master
>The legacy breeds true
Blazing heat of starfire
>And deadly chill of space
Are all the same to one who watches

>The tides of space and time.
